During my rather lengthy chat with the Speaker, he asked about the Director, speaking of him in very fond terms. He said he had the highest regard for Admiral Raborn and asked that I convey his personal best wishes to him along with his comment that he thought he was doing a fine job. I told the Speaker I would be happy to do this.

6. (Confidential - [REDACTED]) Called Mrs. Sally Gjertson in the office of Representative Glenn R. Davis (R., Wisc.) in regard to a constituent request for information on "What part the CIA played in the 1954 Guatemala Revolution" and informed her that as a matter of policy the Agency does not comment on such matters. Mrs. Gjertson understood completely and thanked me for my call.

7. (Unclassified - [REDACTED]) Mr. Tom Larkin, in the office of Congressman Arnold Olsen, (D., Mont) called and wanted to refer several applicants to the Agency for summer employment. I explained our summer employment program to him and he appeared to fully appreciate our position. However, I said that we would always be interested in receiving referrals for full-time employment.

8. (Internal Use Only - [REDACTED]) Talked with Mr. Eric Youngquist, Department of State, concerning his earlier call for delivery of certain [REDACTED] Congressman Zablocki in connection with the Hearings now being held by the Far East Subcommittee. Youngquist indicated that Secretary Rusk had requested Ambassador MacArthur to get this material over to Mr. Zablocki. It was agreed in the absence of further definition as to what was wanted we would have the White Book on MacArthur's desk by the opening of business on Monday morning so that he could forward it to Mr. Zablocki with an appropriate covering letter at that time. Youngquist will let us know whether [REDACTED] publications are wanted.
